SENATE RESOLUTION 299

Senator Blake offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Senator Robert J. Glasgow, known to friends and colleagues as "Bob," first saw the light of day 39 years ago, on February 28, 1942; and

WHEREAS, Senator Glasgow's career has filled his father, the late Weldon J. Glasgow, and his mother, Wenona Glasgow, with delight and joy as he grew up in Stephenville to go from graduate of Stephenville High School to soldier in the United States Army, from student body president at Tarleton State University to law student at The University of Texas, from aide to Governor Smith to attorney in Stephenville, from District Attorney to State Senator; and

WHEREAS, It was the Senator's good fortune in 1965 to wed the beautiful Deanna Carr of Huckabay; they now have three beatific children: Delaina, 14; Holli, 11; and Jody, 7; and

WHEREAS, It is a pleasure and an honor for the members of the Senate to share in this joyous occasion with a favored colleague; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 67th Legislature, hereby wish Senator Glasgow a happy 39th birthday and happiness for the many more to come; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for Senator Glasgow as a memento of this occasion.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION 300

Senator Traeger offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of Texas is honored to have as a guest this morning of February 26, 1981, Mr. Donald M. Yena, the renowned artist whose depictions of memorable battles and events in the history of Texas have won him critical accolades and a redoubtable reputation; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Yena came to Texas at the age of three and grew up in Castroville, an Alsatian community; he learned to sketch while quite young and had decided to become an artist by the time he entered San Antonio's Vocational and Technical High School; having graduated, he enrolled in the Hunter School of Commercial Art; and

WHEREAS, His studies were interrupted when in 1956 he joined the United States Navy, from which he was discharged four years later; by this time, however, he had resumed his painterly pursuits, having enrolled in a correspondence course of the Famous Artists School; he received his Certificate of Completion in 1962, and has since then established himself as a major artist of the Southwest headquartered in San Antonio; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Yena, while still in the Navy, married his high school sweetheart, the gracious Miss Louise Marie Cowan; and

WHEREAS, This distinguished artist is well known to readers of the Texian Press, which has featured his western portrayals in at least two books of their series on Texas history; his illustrations in The Battles of Texas have been acclaimed for their lifelikeness and historical authenticity; and

WHEREAS, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Horlock have been generous enough to donate several of Mr. Yena's paintings to the State Library of Texas; these are invaluable additions to the library's collection; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 67th Legislature, hereby commend Mr. Donald M. Yena for his contributions to Southwestern art; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for Mr. Yena as an expression of gratitude and esteem from the Senate of Texas.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Traeger and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted.

GUESTS PRESENTED

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Message from the Governor was read and was filed with the Secretary of the Senate:

Austin, Texas
February 18, 1981

TO THE SENATE OF THE SIXTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE; REGULAR SESSION:

Pursuant to Article III, Section 5 of the Constitution of Texas, I hereby submit as an emergency matter the following:

There appears to be a serious problem facing many businesses in Texas in obtaining product liability insurance. The cost of this insurance has escalated astronomically in many cases. It is my opinion that certain changes are warranted in products liability suits. So the Legislature may begin immediate consideration of this, I hereby designate Senate Bill 511 by Meier and House Bill 1136 by McFarland as an emergency matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/W. P. Clements, Jr.
Governor
